HB Singers

In Hathaway Brown Upper School Vocal Arts Department, students experience, understand, and appreciate music and culture through singing. All students in grades 9-12 are invited to sing in HB Singers, a large, non-auditioned ensemble, and advanced singers audition to perform in the small a cappella ensemble Bravuras. Individual students may take Solo Voice Jazz Class or Songwriting. Ensembles perform excellent women's choir repertoire in a variety of styles and genres including all classical periods, various world traditions, and modern genres like pop and vocal jazz. In addition to formal winter and spring concerts, HB Vocal ensembles have performed at Trinity Cathedral, The Cleveland Museum of Art, Cleveland Clinic and at The Bop Stop.

Laura Webster (Director), B.A., MEd., has taught Early Childhood-12 general and choral music for 25 years at Hathaway Brown School in Ohio. She has taught General Music Methods at Baldwin Wallace University and Fine Arts in Early Childhood at Lake Erie College. Laura has Orff Schulwerk and Kodaly Certification. Webster teaches movement for all three Levels of Orff certification at Kent State University during the summer, is a national and regional clinician for music education, and has been published in the scholarly journal, The Orff Echo. She is mom to Violet, age 20, and Logan, age 16, and loves to read and perform with her Irish fusion band Tweed in her free time.

A native of Rome, Italy, Dr. Lorenzo Salvagni (Collaborative Pianist and Composer) is a well-established composer, pianist, organist, translator, and language instructor in the Greater Cleveland area. His music is frequently performed, recorded, and broadcast in both the US and Italy, and is currently available on all major streaming services. Starting this fall, he will serve as Chairman of the Cleveland Composers Guild. Dr. Salvagni is currently working on an Italian-American opera in one act, "The Pilot," together with writer Tim Tibbitts. A scene from this work will be performed in May by the Cleveland Chamber Symphony at Baldwin Wallace Conservatory. For more information on upcoming events, please check the composer's website at lorenzosalvagni.com.
