Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses said: The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: “If I hear the voice of the Lord my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die.” Then the Lord replied to me: “They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak—that prophet shall die.”

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 111

1 Hallelujah!

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, *
in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

2 Great are the deeds of the Lord! *
they are studied by all who delight in them.

3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for ever.

4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He gives food to those who fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his covenant.

6 He has shown his people the power of his works *
in giving them the lands of the nations.

7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
all his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever, *
because they are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever; *
holy and awesome is his Name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding;
his praise endures for ever.

Children are invited to grab a cushion and sit near the altar as the gospel is being read. Children's Chapel begins after the reading of the Gospel. Children are invited to follow the Children's cross for a lesson in the Chapel and will return to their parents by the passing of the peace.

Gospeler

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People

Glory to you Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe in God who made us all and whose divinity infuses life with the sacred.

We believe in the multiple revelations of God,
alive in every human heart, expressed in every culture,
found in all the wisdoms of the world.

We believe in Jesus, the Christ,
who leads us to the fullness of humanity,
to what we are meant to become.
Through Christ, we become new people,
called beyond the consequences of our brokenness,
lifted to the fullness of life.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the breath of God on earth,
who keeps the Christ vision present to souls yet in darkness,
gives life to hearts now blind,
infuses energy into spirits yet weary, isolated, searching and confused.
We believe in God who is life.

Amen to courage, to hope, to spirit of truth, to nature, to happiness, to wholeness, to the partnership of people in God's plan, to the Christ who calls us beyond the boundaries of ourselves, to forgiveness, and to everything that stretches our hearts
to the dimensions of God.
In all of this, we can surely believe, as God does.

~A Profession of Faith, by Sister Joan Chittister, OSB (modified)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In the darkness before creation, you made all that lives and breathes. In the darkness of Mary's womb, you formed Jesus, bringer of light. In the darkness of our world your spirit sustains us. O God, you are with us in darkness and in light.

Under the cover of darkness, Magi followed the star to the Christ-child. We come from the East and we come from the West, following you on our different roads, following the same star to the same place. O God, you are with us in darkness and in light.

In the stillness of the dark, we pray for all who need God's presence in a special way—people who cannot find work, who cannot pay their bills, who have no place to live, people who are discouraged and hopeless, people who have become cynical and bitter. O God, you are with us in darkness and in light.

We live in this world in our bodies, we rejoice in life and breath, yet when sickness or pain cripples us, we lose our bearings, we feel lost and bewildered. We need your presence to keep us safe. Be with those who are sick, especially...

Intercessions of the congregation are offered at this time.

O God, you are with us in darkness and in light.

Thank you for moments of inspiration, for moments of clear vision where we see who we are and who we are meant to be, where we see where we are, and where you want us to go. Give us courage to take the journey that you call us to, and give us strength on the road. O God, you are with us in darkness and in light.

Presider Blessed are you, who in goodness, created both darkness and light that you might reveal to us the mysteries of faith. Send us out into the world in confidence, to proclaim the revelation of your love and the work you are doing in us and through us, for your kingdom come. Amen.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Let us confess our sins against God and one another.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

You may offer one another a sign of Christ's peace.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Enriching Our Worship, Prayer 3

God be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might,
Heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry, ho - san - na in the high - est!
Bless - ed i - s the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est!

Presider Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Presider and People

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

9 Christ Jesus, come in glory!

The congregation is invited to lift hands in prayer at the epiclesis, the invocation of the Holy Spirit.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love.

The congregation lowers their hands.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise. Blessed are you now and for ever.

Presider As Christ teaches us we pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever.

Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Presider God of promise, you have prepared a banquet for us.

People Happy are those who are called to the Supper of the Lamb.

Presider The Gifts of God.

People For the People of God.

Presider Take them in remembrance that Christ poured himself out for us.

People Through Christ we share the same mind, the same love, in one body.

All are invited to come forward for Communion or a blessing. Bread and wine are both offered, though drinking from the common cup is not required. If you choose to receive wine, please refrain from intinction (dipping bread in the wine) at this time. Gluten-free bread is available for those who need it.

People

May you carry the prayers of all of us as you take this sacrament of Holy Communion from the altar of Trinity Cathedral. Amen.

THE POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.
