I am old enough to remember phone books, spiral-bound church directories, and even things like kitchen phones that you clutched between shoulder and ear as you cooked, as children (In this case, I was the child) tried not to get tangled up in the chords...

What is Lent Madness? It's a fun, engaging way to learn about the men and women highlighted in the Church's calendar of saints during the season of Lent. The madness begins this year on February 15.

more of these (offsite) dinners for food and fellowship. "Friar Fridays" take place on Feb. 16, 23, Mar. 1, 8, 15 and 22; meal locations will rotate around the Cleveland area.

Contact Bill DiTirro at bdt8320@sbcglobal.net to add your name to the Friars mailing list (or to find out more). On the Sunday before each Friday gathering, Bill will send an invitation to that week's fish fry, with information about the location and the group's meeting time.

Here's the format: 32 saints are placed into a single elimination tournament bracket (think "March Madness"). Biographical information about each saint is shared; two saints go head-to-head each weekday. Vote for your favorite saints on the Lent Madness website, or by using social media— anyone can participate and it's free. Things get more interesting in the later rounds - we find out a little more about the semifinal and final contenders - and ultimately, one saint earns the coveted Golden Halo.

Visit the Lent Madness website to find out more and follow the tournament's progress.

Go Speak Conversations

7:00 p.m. | February 28

This Week: Peace, Justice & Mercy

After Evensong February 21 through April 17, Mission team leaders will engage the congregation in Go Speak conversations. Select a Go Speak card on the table that “speaks to you” and then respond to the prompt on the card. Those present listen to your response without questioning or feedback, and in turn, can select a card and share their own story.

Go Speak gatherings have proven to be comfortable and provide a safe environment to give voice to stories of how God moves in our lives. By having a mission team lead that night, conversations may have thematic elements based on that mission team.

The Dynamic Word: The Continuing Work of Translating the Bible

7:00 p.m. | April 24 & May 1

From its very beginnings, the Anglican relationship with scripture has been influenced by the hopes and tensions of translating the Bible into English. Our understanding of the words in those ancient texts is constantly evolving, as is our own English language. We now have a new “translation” (it’s actually a revision) called the “NRSV Updated Edition.” What potential for renewed faith might this edition hold for us all?

Part 1: April 24

Part 2: May 1

Speaker: Dr. Bob Fowler

Facilitators: The Very Rev. Bernard Owens and the Rev. Adrienne Koch.

Middle School Pilgrimage

A Middle School Pilgrimage will be held on March 16-17 at Trinity Cathedral. Join peers, grades 6-8, at our cathedral to make friends, worship, pray, and learn. We will practice ways to see God in our lives and the world. Expect a lot of fun, and to explore the ins and outs of our beautiful cathedral. This retreat begins at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday. Family and friends are invited to join the cathedral's "Abundant Table" worship service on Sunday at 9:00 a.m., after which is departure. Registration is required.

Confirmation Retreat

A Confirmation retreat will be held on March 22-23 at Bellwether Farm. People of all ages who are considering confirmation, reception, reaffirmation, or simply want to explore their faith, are invited to this multi-generational retreat. One lay and one clergy leader will lead teaching units and discussions around vocational discernment, apologetics, and living our faith in daily life. Adults will form one group, and youth will form another group. Worship, meals, and some structured discussions will be intergenerational. You need not be a part of a formal confirmation to attend this retreat, although we recommend talking to your priest, warden, or spiritual leader. The event will begin at 5:30 p.m. on Friday night and will conclude on Saturday at 4:00 p.m. Registration is available on the diocesan website and must be completed by March 14. Scholarships are available.
